

Channel 10 (Adelaide)
TEN News - 14/08/2006 - 05:14 PM
George Donikian & Rebecca Morse
Station Ph: 08 8267 1006

Qantas has trialled a new security device which detects flammable liquids. Britain's security threat has been downgraded to severe to help relieve airport chaos. Passengers in heathrow are braving lengthy delays. Despite 23 arrests, the UK Security Chief delivered a warning. A British Airways plane was turned around mid flight when a mobile phone rang and no passenger claimed it. A Perth company, QR Sciences, is the only one in the world with the technology to detect liquid explosives in carry-on luggage.

Interviewees: John Howard, Australian Prime Minister; John Reid, British Home Secretary; Richard Delaney, Tourist
Duration: 1:55
Summary ID: A00023026428
© Media Monitors