

ABC Newcastle (Newcastle)
Day Shift - 16/08/2006 - 11:38 AM
John Clarke
Station Ph: 02 4922 1250

QR Sciences Kevin Russeth discusses the development of the technology that is used to detect explosives. Describes the activities of the company in the detection of explosives in for example mail for the last eight years. Tells of the changing threat from knives and guns to explosives saying terrorists are creative. Suicide bombers are a relatively new phenomena. Describes the support from the Federal Government and its departments. Explains the difference in the chemical signatures of high and low explosive materials. Comments on the detection of liquid explosives.

Duration: 6:30
Summary ID: 200023054839
© Media Monitors